The achieved English level is 43/100 on the EF SET score scale and B1 Intermediate according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). The EF SET score is calculated as an average of the reading and listening scores.

Listening Section

52/100 B2 Upper Intermediate

At this level, it is easy to comprehend most lectures and speeches, including complex agreements and disagreements. Most television, radio, internet and film broadcasts are understood without too much effort.

- Can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines or argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar.
- Can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes.
- Can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.

Reading Section

34/100 A2 Elementary

At this level, it is easy to comprehend basic communication of facts in written English and to understand short, practical written communication, like letters and memos on everyday subjects.

- Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment).
- Can read very short, simple texts.
- Can find specific predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, menus and timetables, and can understand short, simple personal letters.

The EF Standard English Test (EF SET) is the world's first completely free, online standardized English test for learners of all levels, from beginner to advanced. As part of EF Education First, we draw upon a 50-year legacy of academic excellence, having helped more than 20 million people across the world to successfully learn English.
